

DQE Communications CEO Named to Smart 50 Honoree Class

Smart 50 Awards recognizes top Pittsburgh-area CEOs for their ability to build and lead savvy organizations effectively

Pittsburgh, Penn. – Nov. 25, 2019 – DQE Communications \(DQE\), the premier provider of high-speed, fiber-optic networking for businesses and carriers throughout southwestern Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and northern West Virginia, has been recognized for being one of the most impactful businesses in the Pittsburgh area. Smart Business Magazine named DQE President and CEO Jim Morozzi one of the area's top executives as part of its annual Smart 50 Awards. Morozzi and fellow honorees were recognized at an event on November 20.

"The Smart 50 Awards allows us to celebrate the various ways in which companies are investing in the Pittsburgh area," said Dustin Klein, Publisher & COO, Smart Business. "Morozzi and the DQE team have made a lasting impact on the region through the design and implementation of their innovative fiber optic network solutions. They've focused on continuous evolution of the business process, cutting-edge product development and expansion into new markets, which is to be celebrated."

DQE is a fiber network provider that delivers customer focused solutions to businesses and has maintained its dedication to the fiber business for over 20 years. DQE has consistently invested in its network through route expansions and product portfolio growth. Its team is dedicated to understanding each customer's needs to deliver a reliable solution that is right for the business.

"We're honored to be recognized at the Smart 50 Awards alongside other prominent businesses in the area," said Morozzi. "As a Pittsburgh-grown business, we believe investing in our community through innovation is integral to continued development and improvement. We'll continue doing our part to ensure businesses in Pittsburgh and beyond have reliable high-speed networks to support their operations."
